My dear Sir,
I think it will too wet & dirty for Ostham to-day. Better put it off for a day or two, as you are not pressed for time.

I am very truly yours,
W. Wheaton

We shall expect to see you this evening

Wheaton

(Circular)

United States Legation, Berlin, Feb. 20th, 1839-

Sir,

I beg leave to recommend to the kind attentions of the different American Ministers, Agents, & Consuls in Austria & Italy, the Bearer of this Letter, Professor von Raumer, too well known by his various historical & political Works to render any introduction from me necessary - to secure him the most favorable reception by my Countrymen & Colleagues. The object of Mr von Raumer's present visit to Italy is in pursuit of information respecting the present state of the Peninsula. Any assistance you may be able to give him with this view will be conferred on a most able, worthy, & enlightened Man, the friend of our free Country & of Mankind in general.

I need not add that I shall be most happy to reciprocate by receiving here any intelligent travellers you may recommend to my attention.

I have the honor to be with the highest consideration & esteem, your countryman & humble servant,

Henry Wheaton

My Dear Sir,

Allow me to present to you my friend M. Vergé, avocat from Paris, who is sent here on a mission by M. de Salvandy, Minister of Public Instruction, to examine the state of Law Education in Germany with a view to some improvements in the Écoles de Droit in France.

M. Vergé is a literary of distinction, & draws up the bulletin of the Académie de Sciences, morales et politiques, under the direction of Mr. Mignet.

Will you be so kind as to let him see the Library under the guidance of some one who speaks French?

I am, my dear Sir, very truly & faithfully
yours,

H. Wheaton

Legation of the United States, Berlin, March 5th, 1844

Gentlemen,

I beg leave to recommend to your kind attentions the bearer of this Letter, Professor von Praumer, of the University of Berlin, well known for his high reputation in the literary & scientific world, & generally esteemed for the virtues of his character.

Professor von Praumer visited the United States with a view of studying ~~into~~ their institutions, manners, social & economical condition. He carries with him the kindest dispositions towards our Country, & the calm & impartial spirit of a philosopher, whose talent for observation has been perfected by travels in different Countries of Europe the results of which have already been communicated to the public.

Any assistance you may be able to give him in facilitating his enquiries & rendering his residence in America agreeable to a German stranger will be conferred upon me worthy of the attention of every enlightened American, & will contribute to brighten the chain of friendship which already binds the two countries together.

I have the honour to be, Gentlemen, with the highest esteem & consideration, your fellow citizen.
