The illustration depicts a mountainous landscape. On the left, a steep, rocky cliffside is shown in shades of blue and grey, with two tall, dark evergreen trees growing from its top. In the center, a bright sunburst with a dark star at its core radiates across the sky. Below the sunburst, a purple rectangular stamp is visible, featuring a crown at the top and a cross with floral motifs in the center. To the right of the stamp is a small handwritten 'W'. The background consists of stylized, layered mountain ranges in various shades of blue. In the lower right foreground, a single, dark, rounded tree stands on a rocky outcrop. The overall style is that of a vintage postcard or album page.
