

639986 III

RARA

638986 IV

24. VIII. 1944.

190

The Polish Ministry of Information, Stratton House, Stratton St. W. I.
August 24th, 1944

This is to inform you that The Kościuszko Radio station has broadcast the following appeals to the Polish nation and the Polish Home Army.

"Soviet Controlled Radio Kosciuszko Station"

July 30th, 1944

"Warsaw trembles from the roar of guns. The Soviet armies ^{are/} pushing forward and are near Praga. They come to us to bring us liberation. The Germans, when pushed out from Praga, will attempt to hold Warsaw and will try to destroy everything. In Bialystok they sacked everything for 6 days. They murdered thousands of our brothers. We must do everything to avoid a repetition of these horrors in Warsaw. People of Warsaw to arms! The whole population should gather round the National Council and the Underground Army. Attack the Germans. Stop the Germans destroying public buildings. Assist the Red Army in crossing the Vistula. Give it information and show it the best forms. The more than a million inhabitants ought to become an army of a million men fighting for liberation and destroying the German invaders"

July 29th 1944 /Broadcast by Union of Polish Patriots in Moscow./

"Appeal to WARSAW: FIGHT THE GERMANS!"

No doubt Warsaw already hears the guns of the battle which is soon to bring her liberation. Those who have their heads to the Hitlerite power will again as in 1939 join battle with the Germans' this time for the decisive action.

The Polish Army now entering Polish territory, trained in the USSR is now joined to the People's Army to form the corps of the Polish Armed Forces, the armed arm of our nation in its struggle for independence. Its ranks will be joined tomorrow by the sons of WARSAW. They will all together with the allied army pursue the enemy westwards, wipe out the Hitlerite vermin from the Polish land and strike a mortal blow at the best of Prussian Imperialism. For WARSAW, which did not yield but fought on, the hour of action has already arrived. The Germans will - no doubt try to defend themselves in Warsaw and add new destruction and more thousands of victims. ur houses and parks, our bridges and Railway
/to be continued/

Faint, illegible text at the top of the page, possibly a header or title.

Faint, illegible text in the upper middle section.

Main body of faint, illegible text, appearing to be several lines of a letter or document.

Faint, illegible text in the lower middle section.

Lizbone

The Polish Ministry of Information, Stratton House, Stratton Atr. W.I.
page 2 of the "Kosciuszko August 24th, 1944
Radio station"

Stations, our factories and public buildings will be turned into defence positions. They will expose the City to ruin and its inhabitants to death. They will try to take away all the most precious possessions and turn into dust all that they have to leave behind. It is therefore a hundred times more necessary than ever to remember that in the flood of Hitlerite destruction all is lost that is not saved by active effort, that by direct active struggle in the streets of WARSAW, in its houses, factories and stores we not only hasten the moment of final liberation, but also save a Nation's property and the lives of our brothers.

JULY 17th 1944

"The front nears Poland at blitz speed. The German will dig themselves in Poland, this will be their last card. They are fortifying the Eastern outskirts of Warsaw and the banks of the Vistula near Sandomierz. The underground Polish forces are ready for the struggle....."

JULY 15th 1944.

An appeal to the people of the provinces of Białystok and Lomza to rise in arms.

JULY 16th 1944

A similar appeal.

JULY 9th, 1944

"The Soviet forces are advancing irresistably. They aim not only at the liberation of Russian lands but also of other lands as well, including Polish ones. That is why it is so important to organise an anti-German movement in the fighting rear. Fighting France has shown the way. The Poles will not be missing in this struggle."

/to be continued/

The Polish Ministry of Information, Stratton House, Stratton str, W. I.
August 24th. 1944
page 3 of the "Kościuszkó Radio station"

JULY 7th. 1944

"The Red Army is coming to us and with it the Polish Army. The eyes of all Poles are turned on these armies. The final struggle with the Nazi beast is at hand. At the beginning of the last century the greater part of our country was under the German yoke. They did everything to rob and demoralise the Poles. But then the Prussians were mistaken in their calculations. Help came from France - the Poles went into battle. When the French Armies entered Warsaw in 1806 the people cried with joy and kissed the French soldiers. Now the Polish nation will rise again to exterminate the German vermin.

JULY 6th 1944

An appeal to follow the example of the People's Army, to rise and expell the enemy.

JUNE 15th 1944

"After the beginning of the invasion the will to fight has grown within the Home Army. It is generally believed that it is time to act. There is great discontent with the orders of Sosnkowski and Bor.

JUNE 19th 1944

Instructions for partisans.

JUNE 7th and 8th 1944

An appeal to rise in arms.

JUNE 2nd 1944

"...the armed resistance of the peasant masses in the Lublin district has given an interest growth of partisan battles which spread from village to village and from party to party. This armed resistance movement has saved tens of thousands from death and has inflicted great losses on the Germans. These battles have shown that a mass armed resistance is possible and that the losses are smaller in fighting than in submitting passively to terrorism. To day no one should dare to say that the Poles are mad.

