

(A72)

φ J. C. mabel '83

OH! FRIENDSHIP, SACRED BE THY POWER
BALLAD

DEDICATED WITH SENTIMENTS OF ESTEEM AND SINCERE REGARD

TO

MRS Thomas H. Shreeve

BY

ANNA M. ABLAMOWICS.

For the Ladies Musical Library

Published by F. W. RATCLIFFE Louisville Ky

Entered according to act of Congress in the Year 1851 by F. W. Ratcliffe in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of Ky

Oh! Friendship sacred be thy power

Written and composed by

Anna M. Ablamowics.

VOICE.

Larghetto espressivo.

PIANO.

II. While gli - ding o'er the restless deep, Still thoughts of me re - new, Let

I. Oh! frien - ship, sacred be thy power, 'Tis felt by every heart, But mem - o - ry her record keep To ho - ly friend - ship true. When deep - est felt in that sad hour When friends who love must part. That Bibl. Jagiell.

Muz. 2008 D 33/24
(195)

time with swift but si - lent track, Hath sped his course o'er thee, Wilt word of sorrow on my ear, How dull and cold it fell, Dear

dim.

thou to oth-er days look back, And then re - mem - ber me.

friend of many a vanish'd year That one sad word fare - well.

pp

dim.

Energico.

III. The an - chor's weigh'd the sails are spread, They flutter in the wind, And friends their last farewell have said, To all they leave be - hind, To waft thee to thy des - tin'd shore May fa - v'ring bree - zes rise - Fare - well, if here we meet no more we'll . . . . meet beyond the skies.