The first system of musical notation consists of a grand staff with a treble clef on the upper staff and a bass clef on the lower staff. The time signature is 3/4. The music begins with a piano (p) and leggiero marking. The upper staff features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the lower staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

The second system continues the piece, maintaining the 3/4 time signature. The melodic line in the upper staff shows some chromatic movement, and the bass line continues with its accompaniment. The paper shows signs of water damage, particularly in the center.

The third system of musical notation features a fortissimo (f) dynamic marking. The melodic line in the upper staff becomes more active, and the bass line continues with its accompaniment. The paper shows signs of water damage, particularly in the center.

The fourth system of musical notation concludes the piece with a fine marking. The melodic line in the upper staff ends with a final cadence, and the bass line provides a concluding accompaniment. The paper shows signs of water damage, particularly in the center.

Handwritten musical score for piano, consisting of four systems of staves. The notation includes treble and bass clefs, notes, rests, and dynamic markings. The first system begins with the instruction ff grandioso. The second system includes ff markings. The third system features an 8<sup>a</sup> marking above the staff. The fourth system includes a loco marking and concludes with the instruction Dal segno al fine.

CODA.

The musical score is divided into four systems. The first system is in 3/4 time and begins with a first ending bracket labeled '1'. It includes dynamic markings of p and f. The second system features a basso marcato instruction and a p dynamic marking. The third and fourth systems consist of complex chordal textures with dynamic markings of f and p.

First system of musical notation. Treble clef, key signature of two sharps (F# and C#), and a common time signature. The piece begins with a fortissimo (ff) dynamic. The right hand features a series of chords and arpeggiated figures, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment of chords.

Second system of musical notation. The right hand continues with melodic lines and chords, marked with a forte (f) dynamic. The left hand accompaniment remains consistent with the first system.

Third system of musical notation. The right hand features more complex melodic passages. The left hand accompaniment includes a section marked with a piano (p) dynamic.

Fourth system of musical notation. The right hand contains a series of sixteenth-note runs. The left hand accompaniment includes a section marked with a piano (p) dynamic. The system concludes with a glissando and an 8va (octave) marking.
