

Alg 337

Wniosek.

Wysoki Sejmie!

Od szeregu lat w Wydziale krajowym jest poruszana sprawa budowy mostu na rzece Wisłoce w powiecie Ropczyckim. Sprawa budowy mostu jest ze strony Rady powiatowej w Ropczycach posunięta tak daleko, że Rada powiatowa przedłożyła Wydziałowi krajowemu uchwałę jeszcze w roku 1907 co do pokrycia kosztów budowy mostu na drodze Dębica-Zasów w jednej trzeciej części. C. k. Namiestnictwo reskryptem swym do Wydziału krajowego we wrześniu r. b. oświadczyło się przychylnie do udzielenia znacznej subwencji ze strony c. k. Rządu.

Zważywszy, że regulacja rzeki Wisłoki w miejscu tem, gdzie ma być most budowany, jest przeprowadzona, zważywszy, że wskutek regulacji przewóz na rzece tej stał się nadzwyczaj trudny, że ludność okoliczna wskutek tego jest narażana na wielkie trudności i wypadki,

podpisani wnoszą:

Wysoki Sejm raczy uchwalić:

Wzywa się Wydział krajowy, ażeby wypracował projekt budowy mostu na rzece Wisłocie koło Dębicy i rozpoczął budowę w jak najkrótszym czasie.

Wnioskodawca
Jedynak

Bojko, Jampolski, Wasung, Długosz, Bis, Cipser, Bernadzikowski, Styła, Cieluch, Szwed, Płak, Skołoszewski, Lewakowski, Witos, Krężeł.

Whipack

Wysocki, Henry

Henry Wysocki was born in 1871 in the village of Wysocki, near the town of Włocławek, in the province of Pomerania, Prussia. He was the son of a farmer and a miller. He received his primary education in the village school and then in the gymnasium in Włocławek. He was a member of the Polish youth organization, the "Młodzież" (Youth), and was active in the Polish national movement. He was arrested in 1905 and sentenced to prison for his participation in the Polish national movement. He was released in 1907 and continued his education in the gymnasium in Włocławek. He was a member of the Polish youth organization, the "Młodzież" (Youth), and was active in the Polish national movement. He was arrested in 1905 and sentenced to prison for his participation in the Polish national movement. He was released in 1907 and continued his education in the gymnasium in Włocławek.

Wysocki, Henry

Henry Wysocki was born in 1871 in the village of Wysocki, near the town of Włocławek, in the province of Pomerania, Prussia. He was the son of a farmer and a miller. He received his primary education in the village school and then in the gymnasium in Włocławek. He was a member of the Polish youth organization, the "Młodzież" (Youth), and was active in the Polish national movement. He was arrested in 1905 and sentenced to prison for his participation in the Polish national movement. He was released in 1907 and continued his education in the gymnasium in Włocławek.

Henry Wysocki was born in 1871 in the village of Wysocki, near the town of Włocławek, in the province of Pomerania, Prussia. He was the son of a farmer and a miller. He received his primary education in the village school and then in the gymnasium in Włocławek. He was a member of the Polish youth organization, the "Młodzież" (Youth), and was active in the Polish national movement. He was arrested in 1905 and sentenced to prison for his participation in the Polish national movement. He was released in 1907 and continued his education in the gymnasium in Włocławek.