SECOND FEDERAL SAVINGS TOPS CRAFTSMEN IN FINAL SECONDS

Jack Kawiecki's 2 Free Throws Net 71 To 69 PNA Win; Kampa And Kuc Also Sparkle On Offense; Kupski, Trychta And Jaszur-ski Excel For Losers

By Joseph R. Kowal
Thirty-five seconds remained to play when Jack Kawiecki, rookie center-forward of Second Federal Savings, connected on 2 free throws to net the 1954-55 Northern (William N. Erickson) PNA Basketball league co-champions a thrilling 71 to 69 victory over an inspired Craftsmen (Group 3102 PNA) quintet in the 24th annual championship opener last Thursday night at Eckhar Park.

With 35 seconds to go, Kawiecki was awarded a pair of penalty shots and made good on both of them to send the Federals out in front, 71 to 69.
Chester Piorek received 2 free shots with 13 seconds remaining but missed both of them as the Federals gained possession of the ball and controlled it during the final seconds to preserve their 2-point margin.

Kawiecki ringed 6 points, Kampa 19, Kuc 18, Wasielewski 9 and Mike Briglio 7 for the Federals. Kupski, Trychta and Jaszur-ski tallied 15 apiece and Szewedo 9 for the Craftsmen.

Cyza, Bieszczyk, Skowron and Ignoffo starred with their play-making for the Federals. Stanley Smudzki, who made his debut with the Lublins cagers back in 1934, made a brief appearance for the Craftsmen in the second half and made good on his only shot from the field. He ranks among the greatest PNA cagers of all time.
