South-Siders Prevail In Pol.-Am. Meet

South-side bowlers continued their domination of the ninth annual Chicagoland Polish-American singles-doubles tournament in Rainbow Lanes over the weekend, remaining at the head of every event as four of five leads changed hands.

William "Skip" Broderdorf, who won the Chicago Bowling Association's scratch all-events title as a teen-aged "boy wonder" in 1952, combined with Ed Ruminski, 28-year-old mobile air conditioning designer, to grab the scratch doubles lead with 1,138.

Polish American F.D. To Install Officers Tomorrow
The Polish American Fraternal Directors Association of Chicago and suburbs will hold their next meeting Wednesday, March 16, at the Warsaw Restaurant, at 8 P.M.

Fred Michon, 29-year-old tile setter, took the scratch singles lead with 633 and tied Stan Jozwiak with 604 in handicap singles with 664.

Three Is A Crowd

Anton Lesny 497 for the losers. Steinbrecher's raised its lead to 5 1/2 games over Wegrzyn's, winner of 2 from Concord Savings, by winning 2 and tying in the other with Slenk's. John Wick threw a 573, Stan Slowik 559, Chester Jezewski 523 and Ray Rakowski 501 for Steinbrecher, Ed Staniszewski 491 for Slenk, Al Laskowski 512 for Concord, and Stan Partacz 533 and Stan Ciesla 502 for Wegrzyn.

Chicago Cardinals Add Texans Hooper, Compton To Roster
CHICAGO, March 14. — The Chicago Cardinals today added considerable impetus to the solving of their quarterback problem with the addition of two Texans — one from Sweetwater, home of the only Sammy Baugh of Washington Redskins fame, and the other being a lad whom Baugh recommended to the Cards two years ago.

Californians Visit Carnival Of Books
Four Oakland, Calif., youngsters will meet author Marjorie Garthwaite to discuss her book about San Francisco at the time of the 1906 earthquake, on Carnival of Books Saturday, March 19 (WMAQ 10:00 a.m. CT).

Six Footer Without Six Shooter On "I Married Joan"
When Hoot Gibson, silent screen cowboy star, arrived for a Western sequence on "I Married Joan," the wardrobe mistress checked his wardrobe for him. "Of course," he said, "an old-time Western hero like you would have your own cowboy clothes."

By Mel Graff
Only witnesses to this treachery: a few noisy tern and a black-necked stil. The odd craft submerges with its lone mariner.

NO MORE GO

OUT ON HIS KNEES, bantamweight title challenger Chamren Songkitrat of Thailand is apparently unseeing as referee Fred Apostoli holds up fingers to show the count in San Francisco's Cow Palace. Songkitrat finally got to his feet, but after a few more punches from world champion Raul Macias of Mexico in this 11th round, Apostoli stepped between the two to give the fight to Macias.

ALLIANCE COLLEGE ONE OF FINEST EXPERIMENTS IN EDUCATION

Former U.S. President Howard Taft Gave Movement His Blessing
Alliance College at Cambridge Springs (Pa.), Crawford County, is one of the finest experiments in national cultural education in the United States, and one which possibly has suffered the most from "outrageous fortune" in that it was practically destroyed by fire in 1931 and compelled to recover from this disaster when our country was approaching the depths of a national financial depression.
