Dupas Tangles With Scott At Stadium Tonite

Ralph Dupas, New Orleans, and Charley Scott, Philadelphia, each with a yearning eye on the inside, tonight will clash in a 10-round bout at the Chicago Stadium.

The even-money match of opposite styles—Dupas, the change-of-pace boxer and Scott, the powerful slugger—will be televised nationally.

Dupas, a veteran at 23, has a very respectable "batting average." He won 75 of 92 fights, with 13 of the wins being in the KO variety.

Scott, only 22, while less flashy than Dupas is more of a bullseye seeker. He's accounted for 12 KO's in his 22 bouts.

Ralph's best hope is to smother and hurry Charley on the inside, then fight in the open with force for Scott to lead, never comfortable for a slugger.

Matchmaker Ben Bentley, pitched Chicago's red-hot Rudy Ellis against Jimmy Beehan, Miami Beach, in a 160-pound, 10-rounder.

Stengel's Another "Push Button Mgr." To Frank Lane

Sobieski Takes Pair From Hemlock In SLa Mixed League. Hemlock Federal 45 1/2, S. L. A. Circuit 7 48 1/2, Sobieski 45 1/2, Wasik Real Estate 44 1/2, Morskie Oko (A) 43 50, Morskie Oko (B) 42 51.

Stengel's Another "Push Button Mgr." To Frank Lane. "The man is a fairly capable manager," Lane went on. "I said fairly capable, nothing more. He has a most astute general manager in George Weiss. Weiss supplies him with the players and all Stengel has to do is simply push the buttons."

Squeeze Bunt Beats Phillies. Norm Lanke's squeeze bunt with the bases loaded in the ninth inning scored Don Demeter with the winning run for the Dodgers after the Phillies had led 9-3 at one point.

When the American National Exhibit opens in Moscow on July 4 one of the features will be a motion picture in which bowler of the year Don Carter shows the Russians how we play the game. In view of the fact that there are no bowling alleys in Russia, this seems rather like teaching an Alpinist guide how to play polo.
