Round Table, Bornastar Expected To Run At Washington Park This Week

Two national champions of last year may see action during Wednesday's 10th and increasingly climactic week of thoroughbred racing at Washington Park.

The Citation, up for its fifth running, will be renewed at the one mile distance and promises to lure the quickest sprinters and middle-distance stars stabled at the Homewood course.

Hart And Logart Mix Tonight In Stadium Ring

It's a boxer vs. a puncher in the Chicago Stadium's 10 round main event tonight.

Next Saturday's $50,000 added Citation Handicap may lure Kerr Stables' mighty Round Table, last year's Horse of the Year and world money-winning champion.

Among other Citation nominees are William C. Gilmore's three-year-old sensation of the Tri-State Stakes, Flightin Indian, and Calumet Farm's temperamental On-and-On.

Face Uplifts Pirates Into 3rd Place Tie With 8th Victory

All it takes is a Face-lift to make the Pirates look like champs again. There are days the Pirates look like pushovers, and there are other days - usually when little Elroy Face is pitching - that they look like legitimate pennant threats.

2nd All-Star Game In L. A. At Twilight To Lure Over 80,000

New York (UPI)—Commissioner Ford Frick is expected to announce that the Major League's second All-Star game of the year will be a two-light affair "rigged" to draw a record crowd of at least 80,000 into the Los Angeles Coliseum.

BUOS RALLY

They trailed 9-4 in the bottom of the eighth when Dick Stuart's eighth homer with one on high-lighted a five-run rally that tied the score and eventually forced the game into extra innings.

COUNTERATTACK IS FACED WITH PESSIMISM

With half his patrol wounded after a pugny fight with outlaws, and the water ration dwindling, Col. Mackenzie must face a menacing counterattack by the outlaw leader in the Mackenzie's Raiders episode for Wednesday, June 17.

YES, SOME GOLFERS ARE INVETERATE—The Alcoma Country Club clubhouse is burning down behind him in Pittsburgh, Pa., but that doesn't keep this "inveterate" golfer from his putting. The fire lasted four hours, and some of the players had to shoot through clouds of smoke, no natural hazard.

Now Is The Time To Start Making More Interesting Family Movies

Most of us at some time or another have spent in other people's living rooms looking at dreary unimaginative family movies. The subjects are lined up shoulder to shoulder like soldiers facing a firing squad. Nothing is happening, and nobody is moving.
