Stitch Takes On Carl Hubbard At Stadium Jan. 6

The first boxing match of 1960 will be staged in the Chicago Stadium Wednesday night when two young welterweights meet in the 10 round main event.

Although the New Yorkers' victory was sweet, they came out of the game with a bitter taste in their mouths as a result of a player brawl just before the end of the first half.

They saw a scenic wonderland of majestic mountains, waterfalls, glaciers and green valleys, ocean surf and sparkling blue rivers; mountain sheep, bear, caribou, Eskimos; streams teeming with huge salmon, king crabs three feet wide; a ghost town, and gold still being found.

Chicago (UPI)—Red Grange, the old Galloping Ghost from Illinois, says the toughest football player he ever played against was Cal Hubbard, then a tackle with the Green Bay Packers.
