FRIDAY'S GAMES

*2nd Federal vs. Craftsmen (Northwest Diamond)	2	0
*Drifters vs. Cadets (Southeast Diamond)	2	0

Raking the deliveries of Joe Piento for 30 bingles, including homers by Lou King, Jim Pinkawa, Dale Diezel, Ed Thomas and Don Sikorski, Second Federal Savings scored in eight of nine innings last Friday evening at Eckhart Park to vanquish the Drifters, 22 to 5, thereby remaining tied for first place with the Cadets, who were routing the Craftsmen, 10 to 12, in the E. John Sierocinski P.N.A. Senior Softball league race with 2-0 records.

Gene Mozdzierz had 5 hits, Stan Logisz, Diezel, Don Sikorski and Pinkawa 3 apiece, and Thomas went "2 for 2", for the winners, whose veteran righthander, Jim Bondmass, picked up his second triumph via a neat 11-hitter.

Pete Koester rapped out a triple and a single, and Piento a double and a single for the Drifters who trailed throughout the struggle.

HOMERS WRECK DRIFTERS
Mozdzierz singled to center and King followed with a homer to left field to open the first inning for the Federals. Logisz, Diezel, Thomas and Jerry Sikorski followed with singles to produce 2 more runs and a 4 to 0 lead.

A two-base miff of Bondmass' one-out fly to J. Postelnick, and singles by Mozdzierz, King and Logisz netted the Feds a pair in the top half of the second and a 6 to 0 advantage, which the Drifters whittled down to 6 to 2 by scoring a pair in their turn at bat on singles by D. Mathews, Ed Ukleja, Pete Koester and Piento.

The Feds came up with 6 mark-ers in the 3rd to lead by 12 to 2. Thomas drew a walk, Jerry Sikorski singled, Pinkawa shot a homer to right, Willie Kozlowski, Bondmass and Mozdzierz singled, King grounded out to Chet Wnek, and Logisz singled during this spurt.

Ed Thomas belted a long homer to left-center in the 4th, to boost the Fed margin to 13 to 2, and in the 5th five more runs clattered across the platter to hike their advantage to 18 to 2.

Mozdzierz and Ed Sass started it off with singles and Logisz boosted a sacrifice fly to Postelnick. Kozlowski hit into a force play, but Diezel doubled, and Don Sikorski, Alex Kielbon and Pinkawa came through with singles to round out the scoring.

FINE PITCHING
Pete Koester tripped to start the last half of the round for the Drifters, but failed to score when Bondmass nailed Piento on a grounder to Pinkawa, got Ken Schlieben on a smash to Kielbon, and Wnek lined to Mozdzierz.

Drama Of Olympic Games At Poland-USA Track And Field Championships
Some of the drama of the Olympic Games will be there for the sports fan to capture when the United States meets Poland in an international track and field meet at Chicago's Stag Field, June 30 and July 1. Like the Olympics, the U.S.-Poland dual matches athletes against athlete, country against country. Track, height and distance are the final judges.

Competition between the two countries began in August, 1958, when the U.S. team met Poland in Warsaw. Just 11 days after their own national championships, the Poles were in top shape for the encounter. They went into the meet with 14 consecutive victories in international dual meet competition. Almost 100,000 spectators filled the Tenth Anniversary arena.

But the U.S. team, led by Glenn Davis, Charley Dumas, Chicago's Ira Murchison and Parry O'Brien met the challenge without faltering and scored an 18-point victory. Poland had to be content with a world record in the 3,000 meter steeplechase by Jerry Chronik and a two-point victory by his women over U.S. women athletes.

Soose Predicts Patterson To KO Liston In Heavyweight Title Go

Tafton, Pa. — (UPI) — Former middleweight champion Billy Soose, the Poet of the Poconos, predicted today that Floyd Patterson would knock out Sonny Liston to retain the world heavyweight championship in a fight that should never have been.

"I couldn't punch after I broke that hand," he said, "but I want to tell you, if I put a man down three times he wasn't going to get up. Johansson did it seven and couldn't keep Patterson down."

That, he analyzed, may be attributed as much to Patterson's courage as to Johansson's ineptitude.

"Maybe you can knock some of Patterson's opponents," Soose continued the duration, thinks that the only way to bring boxing back is to "keep it off television."

"That's the only way the little clubs can get back into operation and build more boxers," he insisted. "It takes a long while to make a good fighter and television gobbles them up too fast. The way things are going now, they'll soon have to use kangaroos."

Which they might, at that.

Cadets' Homers Defeat Evergreen Bowl Boosters At Pulaski, 16-12

The Curly's Tap Cadets confined their scoring to the first four innings of their Pulaski Park Senior Softball league clash with the Evergreen Bowl Boosters last Wednesday evening at Pulaski Park, and it sufficed to carry them to a 16 to 12 triumph.

Lou Zielinski hit a homer and a single good for four runs batted in, Ray (Bootsie) Murawski batted in 4 with a pair of singles, Tommy Markes propelled 4 across the platter via a homer and a single, and Tommy Rotvetso and Bob Marchewka drove in 2 apiece with a homer and a single each.

Don (Uke) Ukleja outpitched Ed Banka, who was spiked early in the struggle, and his reliever, Ray Joselane, although tagged for 17 hits by Evergreen Bowl, which is managed by Jake Batz.

George Hough and Jimmy Hoffman went "4 for 4" apiece. Gene Zielinski, Joselane, Steve Krolez and Jerry Sikorski rapped out 2 apiece.

Evergreen Bowl scored twice in the top half of the first for a 2 to 0 lead which melted away as the Cadets counter-rallied for 5 in their turn at bat, featured by Bob Marchewka's long homer, to assume a 5 to 2 advantage.

They came up with 6 more in the second, highlighted by homers clouted by Rotvetso and Zielinski, to widen their edge to 11 to 2.

A pair of runs in the first of the 3rd by Evergreen Bowl was matched by a trio of markers by the Cadets in the last half of the 2nd.

Each team scored twice in the 4th as the Cadets led by 16 to 6.

Nicklaus Edges Palmer In Playoff For US Open Title

Oakmont, Pa. (UPI) — Jack Nicklaus, a surprise winner over Arnold Palmer in a tense playoff for the U.S. Open Golf championship, today set his sights on the British Open.

First though, he is going to go fishing for a week. "I'm tired, awfully tired," said the 22-year-old blonde belter from Ohio after he beat the favored Palmer by three strokes over the rugged acres of the Oakmont Country Club course Sunday.

"I'll play in the Western Open after that week's rest and then go to Britain for their Open. Just what I'll do after that, I don't know, but I do know that I'm going back to Ohio State next fall," added Nicklaus, who has two quarters to go for his Business Administration degree.

If he doesn't return to the tournament trail for a long time it will be all right with his fellow golfers who have a strong feeling that Nicklaus is going to become the new scourge of the fair-ways.

Because he is only 22, Jack probably will be a good bet to win the U.S. Open for years to come.

The way he beat out Palmer on a hot, sunny day before a gallery in excess of 10,000 showed he has the talent to dominate the game the way such immortals as Bobby Jones, Walter Hagen, Gene Sarazan, Byron Nelson, Ben Hogan, Sam Snead — and in recent years — Palmer did.

He beat Palmer by three shots when Arnie's putter, which had stuttered throughout the tournament, faltered him again.

"I just wasn't putting, that's all there was to it," Palmer said after he lost out in his bid for a new golfing grand slam. He had won the Masters in April, and was gunning to add the U.S. and British Opens and P.G.A. titles to that one.

But it wasn't in the cards — for this year at least. "I'll keep trying, though, so long as I play the game," Palmer promised.

For a time Sunday, it looked like the Golden Boy from Pennsylvania was going to put on one of his patented finishes.

Trailing from the start, he was behind by four strokes at one time, but with birdies on the ninth, 11th and 12th holes, he closed the gap to one stroke. Then he bogeyed the 13th hole and never got back into the running.

Nicklaus shot an even par 71, with nines of 35 and 36, while Palmer had nines of 38 and 36 for a 74. Oakmont's par for the 6,980-yard course is 36-35-71.

Crystal Byrd and Reed's Beauty renew their arch rivalry in the $2,000 inaugural race of the Illinois Top Line Stake series for 3 year old pacers at Sportsman's Park tonight.

These two were among the nation's best juvenile pacers last year, and finished one-two, respectively, in the rich Illinois State Fair Colt Stakes at Springfield.

Seven leading sophomores will oppose this crack pair, including Ensign Goose, Silversmith, Poplar Bluff, Ozark Walter and Mirick Byrd.

Two year old pacers go in the first of the Illinois Top Line series for juveniles in the evening's co-featured race.

What will the parents of the next generation tell their kids what they had to do without?"
