

My dear Sir

This will be handed you by Mr. Welch, of Boston who will pass a week or two in Berlin,
and is desirous of making your acquaintance. As Mr. Welch is a scholar, and visits Germany for the purpose of studying its language, and literature, you will have at least one bond of sympathy,

and should you have it in your power to further his views in any way. I shall feel much obliged to you for it.

Yours very truly
Henry W. Longfellow

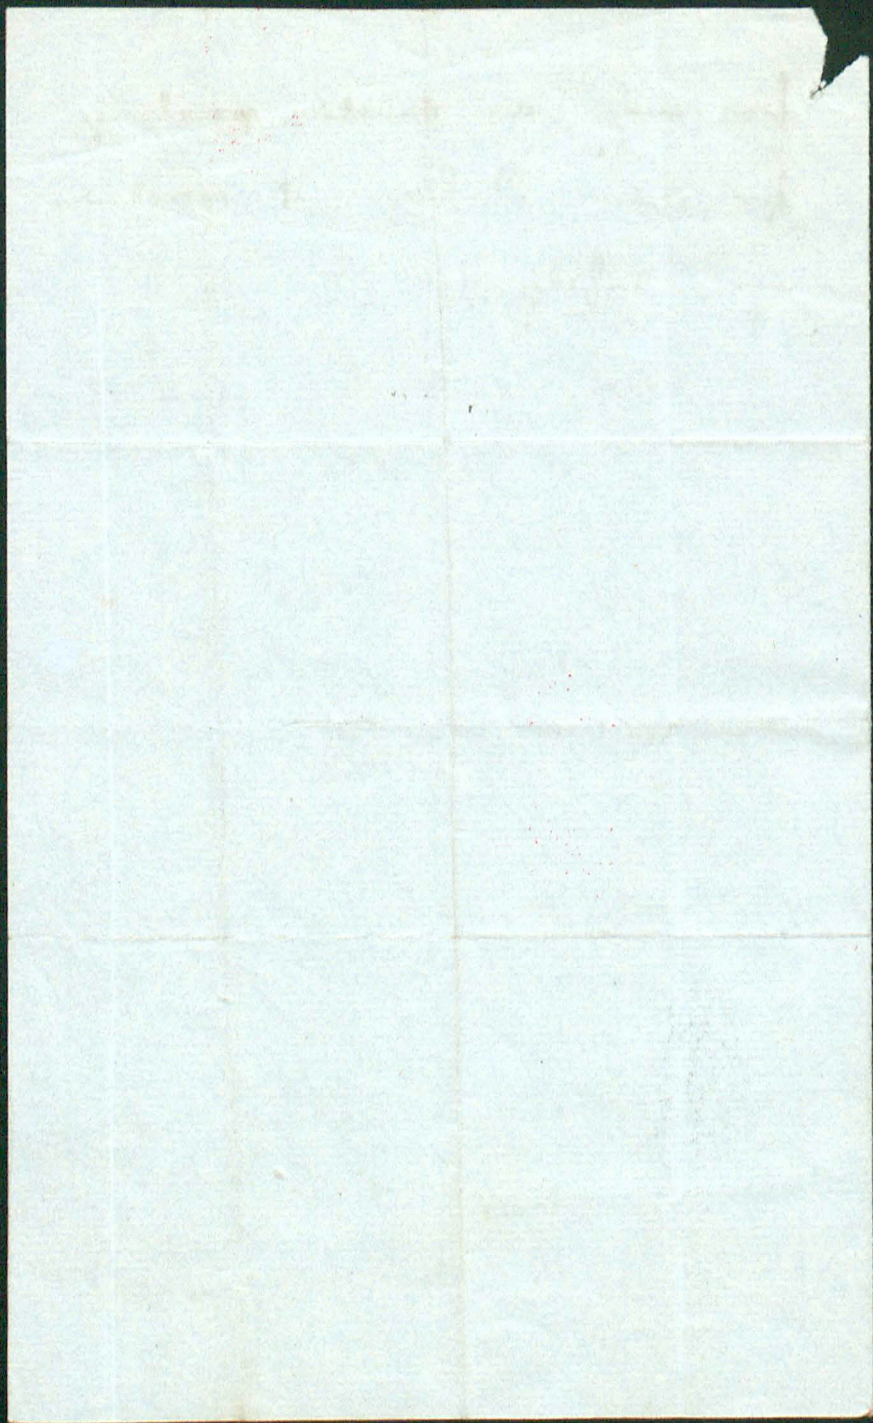

Cambridge April 14. 1841

P.S. A week or two ago I sent by way of London (or rather Sumner did for me) a small package for you. I hope it reached you safely.

With many thanks for your many kindnesses, and this last in particular I send you, my dear Sir, the amount of your bill and of Mr. Falckenberg's.

Farewell & God bless you.

Very truly yours
Henry W. Longfellow.

P.S. Please send the music and Michel Angelo's Sonnets to Freilignath at St. War; & I shall receive them on returning down the Rhein at the end of next week. - Freilignath will pay for the Sonnets, which are not in y<sup>r</sup>. bill

I have been thinking of writing you for some time but have been so busy that I could not find time to do so I am now in the city of New York and I shall be glad to see you if you are in the city at any time

Longfellow

Lives of Great Men all remind us
 We can make our lives sublime,
 And, departing, leave behind us Footprints on the sands of Time.

Footprints, that perhaps another, Sailing o'er Life's solemn main,
 A forlorn and shipwreck'd brother,
 Seeing shall take heart again.
